

ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSE

A horseshoe is made from a metal matrix composite. The metal matrix contains particles of a silicon boride composition. The preferred metal is aluminum and the preferred form of the silicon boride is silicon hexaboride. The horseshoe is lightweight and has superior wear resistance and good vibration damping characteristics.